On the back page there is a rough events guide for the Midlands if you want more info

I tend to use the TRING WARGAMES Website, or even the NEWBURY WARGAMES website for Wargames Events

I will look at the IPMSUK.ORG website for the plastic model shows

WWW.UKMODELSHOPS.CO.UK will give you details of shops, and events including collectors fairs etc

SPRIT GAMES have a great events page that is well worth a look, and will keep you posted about BOARD GAMING events

In addition Trade Websites sometimes carry details of events, local clubs etc as do some of the shop websites

So there is no excuse, get yourself out there to a club or event, life is too short not to be having some fun
